The colder weather has started to make rodents enter buildings, we have had an increase in all types including squirrels!!! We have just removed six from one property loft in Stockport (No wonder the owner could not sleep at night)